European car sales analysis July 2018 – brands

September 10, 2018 by Neil Denard • 0 Comments

Sales of passenger cars in Europe increased by 7.8% in July 2018, the second largest increase of the year so far, also helped by an extra selling day compared with July 2017. A total of nearly 1.20 million vehicles were sold during this month. The major EU markets showed very diverse results, with Spain (+18.1%) and France (+18.9%) showing the biggest growth of the top 5 markets. Germany also showed healthy growth at +12% while car sales in Italy were up 6.7% and the UK was up 1.2%. Lithuania is the fastest growing market with an increase of 56.4%, followed by Croatia (+43.7%), Romania (+34.2%), Portugal (+26.1%), and Poland (+25.7%).
